

Citizen Wilson applauds Jimmy Justice

Sunday, 19 August 2007

Well, well, well. Citizen Wilson is NOT THE ONLY ONE who sees the cathartic value in capturing duplicity and injustice, then tossing it back in the face of those responsible.

'Driving a car in New York City does not meet the definition of "fun." The simple act of finding a place to park can consume hours. And when motorists see traffic-control officers breaking the same rules they are paid to enforce, it can send them over the edge.

But instead of railing against fate, he decided to do something about it. Taking camcorder in hand, he's compiled nearly 30 hours of video — most of it accompanied by his own highly indignant commentary — of traffic enforcement officers parking in front of fire hydrants while going for lunch, making illegal U-turns, and breaking every other traffic rule in the city.'

Ladies and Gentlemen, meet Jimmy Justice. Read more about Jimmy and his campaign here.

Here is some of Jimmy Justice's fantastic work. Enjoy.

Rock on Jimmy! - Citizen Wilson

Regina parking meter readers, you're next!

{mosgoogle}